

A Retreat for Women

Friday 16 – Sunday 18 April 2010

The Hermitage, Mittagong

Are you curious about Consecrated Life? Do you have questions about it? Would you like to know more? Do you ever wonder if this could be your vocation? Is this the life for you? Are you looking for guidance?

We'd like to help you. No pressure. No strings attached.

This is a retreat to help you find out more about Consecrated Life: what it's about, how to discern and what communities are available.

Sr Mary Madeline OP:
'Why Consecrated Life?'

Mayte Ramos:
'Responding to God:
Mary's Life'

Sr Lydia Marie Allen RSM:
'Who Are You Called To Be
& How Can You Know?'

Sr Hilda Scott OSB
'Poverty, Chastity & Obedience'

Fr Michael de Stoop
'Discerning a Vocation'

Juana Crespi:
'Living with Self & Others'

When: 5.30pm Friday 16th - 3.30pm Sunday 18th April 2010.

Where: The Hermitage, cnr Old South & Bong Bong Rds, Mittagong.

Transport: Assistance with transport can be provided. Contact Elizabeth.

Cost: $180 including accommodation, meals, linen and towels.

Enquires/Registration: Elizabeth Arblaster, Vocation Centre on
(02)9390 5937 or at elizabeth.arblaster@sydneycatholic.org

Photograph by Giovanni Portelli

PLUS ♦ stories from Sr Mary Rachel OP, Sr M. Julie Bracar ISSM & others on discerning their vocation ♦ ask anonymous questions at a Q&A forum ♦ Private spiritual direction available ♦ attend an Expo of consecrated communities ♦ spend time in silence & guided reflections ♦ Mass & Reconciliation Saturday & Sunday ♦ Holy Hour Saturday night