

What are you giving mum this Mothers Day weekend? What about a day with the Lord?

The Life, Marriage and Family Centre of the Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney extends a warm invitation to all mothers and grandmothers, to attend a day of spiritual reflection and devotion.

Held in the beautiful grounds of the Mount Schoenstatt Shrine and retreat centre at Mulgoa, this is an opportunity for mothers to be renewed and refreshed in their giftedness as women and their vocation as mothers. A crèche will be available during the day for those with babies and pre-school children.

The program will begin at 10am and conclude at 4pm. The day will include two talks, with time for personal reflection, confession and spiritual guidance if desired. Morning and afternoon tea and lunch will provide an opportunity for fellowship with other women. The day will conclude with Mass celebrated in the Shrine.

Mount Schoenstatt Retreat Centre is located at 230 Fairlight Road, Mulgoa. It is just over an hour west of Sydney (down the M4 and take the Mulgoa Road exit).

Enquiries and registration can be directed to, lifemarriagefamily@sydney.catholic.org.au or call 9390 5283. The cost of the day, including meals, is $10. (Please advise when registering if you will be bringing babies or pre-schoolers).

CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY
lifemarriagefamily.org.au

Saturday
9 May 2009
(the day before Mother's Day)

A Day of REFLECTION & DEVOTION for MOTHERS

We are blessed to have the following three people guiding the day,

Sr Mary Louise Walsh is a member of the Secular Institute of the Schoenstatt Sisters of Mary. She is responsible for the Mothers branch of the Schoenstatt Movement.

Mayte Ramos is the local superior of the Marian Community of Reconciliation in Sydney and she is currently director of the Catechumenate Office in Sydney.

Fr Richard Aladics was ordained a priest in 1988 and has worked in a number of parishes and chaplaincy roles. Fr Richard is the chaplain of Campion College Australia.

