

The Archdiocesan Family and Life Network

...Because Families Matter

Are You Interested in Families?

So are we! The Life, Marriage and Family Centre of the Archdiocese of Sydney coordinates the Archdiocesan Family and Life Network (AFLN). The AFLN aims to help strengthen families and the parish community by creating an opportunity for representatives to share insights on (and learn more about) family and life issues.

We Need people...just like You!

We are looking for representatives from every parish to be a part of the AFLN. We currently have 50 people in 30 parishes who are part of the Network. We need more willing people to help us foster strategies and share ideas to support individuals and families in our parishes.

Come and See!

Why don't you consider joining the AFLN or coming along to our next meeting to see what it is all about? Contact us on 9390 5283 or at lifemarriagefamily@sydneycatholic.org.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Can You Fit Us In?

The AFLN meets 3 times a year at the Catholic Adult Education Centre (3 Keating Street, Lidcombe) from 7:15 to 8:45pm and follows with supper for those who can stay. It is a casual and enjoyable evening. Our gatherings for 2010 are 9 March, 20 July and 9 November (Tuesday evenings). We also share information by email in between meetings.
