

The Archdiocesan Family & Life Network

...because families matter

The Life, Marriage and Family Centre of the Archdiocese of Sydney coordinates the Archdiocesan Family and Life Network (AFLN). The AFLN aims to help strengthen families and the parish community by creating an opportunity for representatives to share insights on and learn more about family and life issues.

We Need People...Just Like You!

We are looking for representatives from every parish to be a part of the AFLN. We need willing people to help us foster strategies and share ideas to support individuals and families in our parishes.

Can You Fit Us In?

The AFLN meets at the Catholic Adult Education Centre (3 Keating St, Lidcombe) from 7:15 to 8:45pm and follows with supper. It is a casual evening. Our gatherings for 2011 are 1 March, 20 September & 29 November (Tuesday evenings). We also share information by email in between meetings.

An evening focused on disability will be held on 7 June (venue TBA)

Come and See!

Why don't you consider joining the AFLN or coming along to our next meeting to see what it is all about? Contact us on 9390 5283 or at lmfevents@sydneycatholic.org. We look forward to seeing you!
